Hi Byron

Hope an email suffices confirming my interest in reappointment for another term... if you will have me. I look forward to each meeting and love the process of contributing input that adds to the quality of each project.

I ran into a petitioner last week. She praised our judgement in regards to the size of her awning font. When she realized how large the sign company had planned to make her business name she felt so fortunate that we had asked her to dramatically reduce it's size. We joked that if she was advertising for business from outer space, then the font would have been perfect!

Warmly,
Andrea
