Mr. Byron Pope, CMC
City Clerk

Dear Mr. Pope,

Thank you so very much for sending out your letter informing me that my Commission term will expire on June 19, 2014.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to serve for an additional four years on this Commission. I have enjoyed being a part of this Commission and have enjoyed working very closely with my fellow Commissioners.

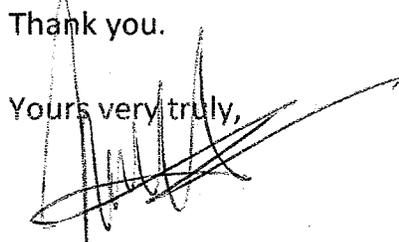

I feel that we work harmoniously together and we have a well-understanding and respect not only for each other, but also for protecting the residents of the City of Beverly Hills from those charities which may be problematic at best.

In addition to our normal reviews and workload, over this last year we have spent a considerable amount of time reviewing the permit application, vetting numerous charities, working very closely with not only our website but with the IRS website in verifying different charitable organizations. I have also very much enjoyed working with Eric Lee and Patty Ogden.

Again, I appreciate your letter and I would very much like to continue on this Commission for another four years.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Murray D. Fischer
